

A FRIEND

A friend is someone who has an opinion like yours, not completely, for example: you like to play the same game.

You must trust each other! A friend must complement each other sometimes. If they do something like lose a game (your on his/her team) or did anything on accident except something like make you blind, it's not the end of your friendship. One of the main things is to be fair. Before I ever consider someone a real friend I first got to talk together at least 4 days.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to be the name 'Tom'.
