

Stories

Sometimes in my spare time, I like to write stories for my own enjoyment. I will show you my method of making a story, and show you one. Here are the directions:

1. Find a moral
2. Choose a genre
3. Create just the goals for 10 characters
4. Create at least 10 characters using the goals
5. Specify how each character will affect each other in order by time
- 6 Organize relations of characters as events by an outline of the story
7. Write

TIP: The best stories have love, hate, jealousy, horror, comedy and wonder all together. Use those feelings to make up the characters and the story.

It's alright to expand your ideas as you go along.

Example:

1. Treat others the way you want them to treat you
2. Drama

TIP: Try to use both love and death to make it good if it's a drama

Davis walks into a tavern, asks what it is, he later finds out that it's actually a secret thieves' guild. He finds out his older brother is a great thief, and everyone wants himself to be a thief. He doesn't join, and he walks back home, it's burning, an old man comes by and says that Prince Gera did this because Davis's family didn't pay the rough taxes. Davis goes to a river and thinks about everything that's happened, and then back to the thieves guild and decides to do so because of anger. He thought Prince Gera takes my family from this world, so I'm going to steal everything he has. It becomes his home. Joe Nova tells Davis about Roger's partnership with Hasan. Elsewhere Prince Gera comes off his royal carriage and shows off to impress Alisa, but she isn't impressed, she hates him. He gets furious and thinks about how he can impress her. He ends up seeing how showing great power would be a perfect way to impress her. So he decides to get more money by raiding villages. Joe Nova hears about the Prince coming closer to raiding the tavern of its wealth, so he decides to call Roger and Hasan to a meeting. At night, in a party in the tavern, Roger, Hasan, and Hasan's son come. Brandon sees Alexander Portuli hissing a woman that's not his wife. Hasan wanted to teach his son how to be a man, but instead Brandon ran away to the far plains. Joe explains the duties of Hasan and Roger and they set out to his palace. As they come by, at the same time, Alisa is told by her father to marry prince Gera, so she runs away in the same place as Brandon, on those fields. Roger and Hasan manage to come inside Prince Gera's castle. Prince Gera catches them, and then Hasan has a duel with him. Hasan dies. Roger asks the prince why he's doing this, and he replies, "For Alisa". Roger tells him he loves Alisa, and Gera says the same. Out of great anger Roger slays Gera, and Allan hears the screams. Elsewhere on the fields Alisa and Brandon meet. Brandon tells her about his father being a terrible thief, and Alisa tells him about her father forcing her to marry the prince. Brandon asks, "Your father is Alexander Portuli, right?" she nods, and he explains to her that he is having an affair. Alisa runs back home and storms in to find her mother. Alisa says, "I found out about the affair." Grace is sad, and asks her, "You know? I'm sorry." Alisa cries, and Grace says, "Your father and I just don't see each other that much, and I've had enough of him! He always complains-" Alisa says in shock, "What?" Grace says, "The affair with Allan Devon." Alisa complains and tells her that she was thinking about Alexander's affair. Grace didn't know Alexander had an affair. Alisa is shocked that her parents are both having affairs. Her father comes in and tells herself and Grace about Hasan Devon and Prince Gera dying. Alisa runs back to the fields to talk to Brandon about this. When she gets there she sees Brandon and Davis jousting with sticks. They all meet and Davis falls in love with Alisa, and Alisa to David. Alisa tells Brandon sadly that his father had died in a duel with Prince Gera. Brandon is extremely sad but says his father deserves it for being a thief. Then he says that all thieves should die. Davis walks away out of fear, and to the thieves guild. Davis meets with Roger and congratulates him for defeating prince Gera. He asks why

He had to kill him. Roger replies, "Because he loved Alisa Portuli, and there's only one love for her." Davis comes back to the fields, but no one is there. He sits by a river and thinks about how he loves Alisa. Elsewhere in the thieves' guild Allan Portuli talks with Joe Nova. He tells Joe about Grace moving in with him, and asks for a favor of stealing everything Alexander's new girlfriend has. Joe says that it will be done. Joe gets Roger to meet with him and explains the two affairs and the job. Roger figures that since Alisa hates her father because of his affair, that Alisa would like for her father to suffer. So he goes to do the job right away. When he gets there, Alexander is in the house. Roger doesn't know, and he just comes in. They both get hostile, and Roger talks about Alexander forcing her to marry Prince Gera just for money. Alexander says it's true that all he wants is the money, and that it's none of Roger's business. He says that he can treat his daughter any way he wants to treat her. Roger gets extremely angry and kills Alexander. Roger leaves with the houses valuables. A few minutes after the job is done, Brandon and Alisa walk back to Alisa's home. They talk about her father getting the house, and her mother having to move in with Allan Devon. When they come inside, they're in shock that the house has been raided. They thought that the Prince Gera's orders are still in place, even though he's dead. They both don't know where to go, but they remember Davis leaving to the tavern. They wanted to talk to him about it. When Brandon and Alisa come to the tavern, they meet Roger and Davis. Alisa tells them both that her house has been raided, and they think that the prince's orders are still in place. Davis tells them that the system doesn't work like that. Because Roger doesn't want to be revealed in the middle of a crowded tavern and in front of his little brother and Brandon, he says that Alisa and Brandon are right. Just as he says that, Allan Portuli hollers across the room, "Did you get all that stuff from that Alexander Portuli, Roger?" Allan is drunk. In shock, Alisa yells, "What?" Allan finally comes to them completely drunk and asks, "Roger, are you deaf? I asked you if you stole all that stuff from Alexander Portuli's house?" Alisa pushes Roger to the ground and says, "You filthy lying thief! Why did you do this?" Roger says, "Don't you hate your father?" Alisa says, "I hate him, but I never wanted him to die!" Roger says, "Even though he wanted you to marry Prince Gera for money for himself?" Alisa says, "You liar! You always lie! He wanted me to marry the prince for a great life! All for me!" Roger replies, "I'm not lying! I swear!" Alisa runs out of the tavern, crying. Brandon and Davis come out to her. They try to make her ease her pain. Davis tells Brandon to stay there with her, as he walks into the tavern again. Davis sees Roger trying to get up, but Davis pushes him down again. "How could you do this to her?" Roger asks, "I would do anything for her. I love her!" Davis yells back, "You're not the only one! Everyone falls in love with her, I love her!" Roger says, "Well, she'd never love a little baby like you! You're only 14 years old!" Davis says, "And you're nothing but a thief! You can steal everything a person has, but you can't steal her from me!" Davis walks out and sees Alisa wiping her tears off. He tells Brandon to stay outside the tavern. Alisa and Davis a long walk in the night talking about how complicated their lives became just so fast. While they walk and talk for a long time, Davis grabbed Alisa's hand as they walk. Alisa stops and so did Davis. Alisa just freezes and looks into Davis's eyes. They kiss, and in the middle of this kiss Alisa says, "I can't do this." Davis asks, "Why?" Alisa runs off into the woods. Davis runs for her and finds her at the river. He sits next to her and says, "This is where I always sit when something's wrong." Alisa looks at him, "So do I." Davis begins, "Alisa I-" Alisa puts her finger on Davis's lips to silences him.

"Davis, I... You're so much younger than me-" Davis interrupts, "Why should that matter?" A long silence. Davis says quietly, "Why?" Alisa says, "It's just.. it's not right. We should be the same age." Davis says, "What about your mother? She's having an affair with Allan, who's twice her age!" Alisa says, "She's only doing that for money." Davis says, "And we're doing this for love." They both kiss, and at the end Brandon from bushes shouts, "Go Davis!" Alisa and Davis are shocked to see him. Brandon asks, "Do you love each other? Are you going to get married?" Alisa says, "I don't want to marry him. Marriage has torn my family apart. We don't ever have to marry. I think that... just our love is good enough." The sunrises in front of them.

THE END

Wow this turned out extremely well!

7. A story takes so long to make, so I wont write it here, but this story seems like a great idea. I'll make it later on. You should know what to do from here.
